Write a diary entry of an experience that was either scary, exciting, sad or enjoyable?

Last evening was the best karate lesson ever! We were in the car driving to the dojo not knowing what Sensei had in store for us tonight. Me and my friend Karl we were talking about the things we might do that night. The car stopped we had arrived. We unbuckled our seatbelts and ran out of the car. We ran to the entrance of the leisure centre. We were joined by our friend Aiden he surprised me and Karl and we all entered the dojo we turned the corner to see Charlie he was a black belt. We approached the entrance to the dojo/the Matsensei rented for the lesson but people were all playing tennis. I'm going to skip this long boring part. We entered the dojo and took our mats. Sensei told us to sit down absolutely no fear against olie he had no brain he started sparring with our opponent olie had dropped his guard and ^{left} turned his back way to much and he let himself open to punches or kicks. Soon ~~later~~ we switched partners I got paired with a really tall brown belt his name was Simon. He was also leaving himself open for attack. Soon ~~later~~ we got stopped to do a practice competition. we had to split up into different groups. Karl went against Aiden first. Karl swung a pretty good round-house kick it was a clean shot so he scored a point. Sensei called up mine and simon's name to fight next I hit a couple of points on simon mostly round house and front kicks some punches. He punched me in the mouth scoring a point on me I won with the most points. That was the end of the lesson. It was an ^{exciting} exciting, scary and enjoyable experience. I can't wait for my next lesson because it was fun.

Great writing :)
