

PAG - Week 1

L.O: I am learning to use apostrophes for singular and plural possession.

- Possession means belonging to someone or something.
- Singular means one of something.

For example, the waiter ate the dog's dinner.

- Plural means more than one.

For example, the waiter ate the dogs' dinner.

Task 1: Add the apostrophes to the sentences below.

Using the possessive 's' shows ownership of an item or thing. These use an apostrophe to show this, for example;

The cat's pajamas. or The dog's toy.

Let's try -

What is wrong with Miss Ockelfords sentence?

Why has Mrs James writing gone wrong?

Where should Miss Dalipes punctuation be?

Where should Mrs Schwartzs apostrophe be?

Now try these!

1. Louises house has 3 bedrooms.
2. On the weekend, Toms dog has an extra long walk on the beach.
3. Jans hoover stopped working, just as she got to the stairs.
4. Mr Jones class were very raucous!

Task 2:

Watch the clip below to find out more about plural possession.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?t=163&v=zNFPnVz7JB4&feature=youtu.be>

Add the apostrophes to the sentences below.

1. All the shops windows were decorated for Halloween.
2. Winstons collar is red but his treats are in a black bag.
3. The group of supporters cheers were very loud.

1. While walking to school, Callie bag strap snapped and her pens fell out.
2. All the tree leaves are changing colour and falling to the ground.
3. There were lots of sweets in Hamid Trick or Treat bag.
4. Chris dad clears the garage out and sweeps the dust with 2 different brushes.

Challenge:

- Write a sentence that contains a possessive apostrophe.
- Write a sentence with a word ending in s which does not need an apostrophe.

Task 3: Complete the sheets below

L.O: I am learning to use 's' for plural and possessive.

Where should the possessive apostrophe go?

1. While walking to school, Callies bag strap snapped and her pens fell out.
2. All the trees leaves are changing colour and falling to the ground.
3. There were lots of sweets in Hamids Trick or Treat bag.
4. Chris dad clears the garage out and sweeps the dust with 2 different brushes.
